Art with Function Furniture by Thomas Murphy of RoughEdge Designs in Atlantic Highlands features the rustic yet sophisticated qualities of live-edge wood. The rough-cut, polished edges highlight the beauty of the grain. Murphy studied art, cabinet making, cloisonné inlay and french polish in SoHo and Greenwich Village in New York City in the 1970s before opening his own company. Designs incorporate illusion and cantilever techniques and include these spalted maple tops milled in New Jersey and capped with African ebony on carbon steel bases. 732-859-7801 or www.roughgedgedesign.com.

Photo Haven Escapes Photography is a collection of some 200 images by Larry Daniels of Neptune, who has a communications design background as well as photographic experience. The images in this online gallery of Seascapes, Cityscapes, Countryscapes, Artscapes and Signscapes are offered as museum-quality giclée prints in a variety of sizes and frame options. First-time buyers receive a 20 percent discount, and all purchasers receive a signed note of authenticity from the photographer. www.escapesphotography.com.
